ABOUT PARK ART FAIR

The Park Art Fair is a small scale annual art event held in early December at the Park Gallery, Pulchowk, Lalitpur. The Park Gallery is a pioneering artist-run institution that has been taking unique initiatives to engage artists, art lovers, and the general public ever since its establishment. The Park Art Fair is one such initiative and began in 2007. The fair brings together works from both eminent and emerging artists, national and international, and one can find on display here a rich diversity of modern and contemporary art, including painting of various schools, abstract art, sculptures, photographs, botanical art, graphic arts, installations, and more. As such, the Park Art Fair not only provides a platform for artists to exhibit their work, but also a unique opportunity for viewers and collectors who visit from all corners of the globe.
